About Trinkerr

Trinkerr is building India's first social trading platform. It means bringing benefits of community to your investments. You can leverage the combined social capital of the community to benefit you. It will make financial markets truly inclusive and democratic for the next 100 million users.

Trinkerr is a platform that enables retail investors to view, learn, follow, and execute the strategies of their peers or more experienced traders. The application integrates community features with trader discovery and trade execution. Our customers are retail investors who mostly rely on external advisory for their trade and investment decisions. We will help them invest in a customised, responsible and aware manner. We empower retail investors to align their risk-return objectives with optimum investment strategies and generate wealth in the process.

Trinkerr believes in a win-win for all. We are a well-funded seed-stage startup and are backed by some of the leading global as well as Indian venture capital funds and angel investors. Our investors include Accel Partners, India Quotient, Titan Capital, co-founders of Unacademy, Udaan, Cohoo, Graphy, Knappily and more. We have a strong founding team who are IIT and IIM alumni and have exceptional professional journeys.
